

Consent & Healthy Relationships!

A workshops for LGBTQ2+ youth and their allies, 25 & under

“Being able to talk about and navigate consent is an important tool for all folks to have, especially youth! Consent isn’t just part of hooking up, it’s part of our everyday lives. This workshop aims to unpack different ideas around consent and autonomy, while giving participants tools to talk about what they really want and easy tips on how to check in with people and partners about what they really want. Through interactive activities and group discussions we will explore how consent is an important tool for folks in the LGBT2SQIAP+ community, and the ways that homophobia/queerphobia/transphobia/transmisogyny/+ are a part of rape culture.”
